CAO Egan stated that the Board has spent the past few months discussing hemp, cannabis and Measure M. Staff has received direction from the Board to move toward legalization, cultivation of hemp, commercial cultivation, sales and testing. CAO Egan also stated that staff needed to draft regulation and ordinances to move forward. CAO Egan presented a draft ordinance of Title 19 for the Board's review and is hoping to enact activities the summer of 2019. The County Code components consist of Titles 3, 18 and 19.

County Counsel Burns stated the draft ordinance is related to cannabis, hemp and structural changes and discussed unregulated grows and nuisance abatement. County Counsel proposed significant changes in the code and gave a summary of sections 1 - 6. The Board also discussed land use, Measure M, business licenses, use permits and testing sites. Director of Planning and Building Services Maurice Anderson gave additional information on the process and requirements for obtaining a use permit. Zoning was also briefly discussed. Sheriff/Coroner Dean Growdon expressed his concern regarding dispensaries and use permits. Extensive discussion was held.
