Sheriff/Coroner John McGarva informed the board he was giving an update regarding the gray wolf issue. Currently the issue had been escalating into a more critical juncture with the wolf attacks on cattle. On New Year's Day there was a depredation at the Hanson Ranch involving a horse and a calf. There had also been an additional depredation at the Hagata Ranch. Sheriff McGarva stated he had contacted the California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW) to inform them of the incident and stated public safety was an escalating concern. This current incident was yards away from the residence. Sheriff McGarva stated the wolves were no longer killing to eat, but killing to just kill. Sheriff McGarva informed the board he had written a letter to Director Crowfoot for an intervention to address the pack. There were 42 confirmed depredations. Sheriff McGarva said the wolves were no longer in a centralized area but moving throughout the county. Sheriff McGarva stated he reached out to CDFW Director Paul Souza as he was very helpful with the gray wolf issue in Sierra County. Director Souza had offered to meet with stakeholders in Lassen County. Wyatt Hanson from Hanson Ranch gave a detailed overview of the wolf attack on the horse and calf at the Hanson Ranch. Extensive discussion was held.
