Supervisor Albaugh recused himself and was absent from 11:32 a.m. - 12:36

p.m.

Director of Planning and Building Services Maury Anderson stated the Williamson Act guidelines had been previously presented to the board in 2012, staff followed the direction of the adopted resolution and that was the purpose of the protest today. Director Anderson gave a brief over of the item and reminded the board there had been a couple dozen Williamson Act Contracts that had been non-renewed. Assessor Nick Ceaglio stated he had Assessor's Chief Appraiser Ed Fitzhenry present to speak on behalf of the Assessor's office as it related. Assessor Ceaglio stated the Assessor's Office was not a party to the action and was the responsive agency in the sense that they were in accordance with the Revenue and Taxation (R&T) Code, Constitution, and the state board. Chief Appraiser Fitzhenry gave a brief overview of the process when a notice of non-renewal is issued by Planning and Building Services. Supervisor Gallagher asked if there was an evaluation of what the cost difference would be for a renewal compared to a non-renewal. Chief Appraiser Fitzhenry stated calculations were math equations that included restriction of value, Proposition 13 value, subtraction, discounted for the remaining term based on an interest rate per the Board of Equalization. With Proposition 13 changing over the years for the pricing index, it would be impossible to quote for 2025 as the Consumer Pricing Index (CPI) had not been issued. There would not be a way to say what the tax difference would be in 2025. Supervisor Gallagher asked what the parameters were. Chief Appraiser Fitzhenry stated initially, year one had no protest, and the increase was approximately $5600. That's the difference. Roughly more than a 100% increase in property taxes would occur year over year. Only the land is subject, homesite improvements fall under Proposition 13. The CPI is factored in each year. If the non-renewal had not been protested, the taxes would have increased. Land owner Robert Kramer informed the board he had been pursuing a conservation easement for approximately fifteen years and had been successful in securing. The purpose of the easement was to stop all development so the land could never be subdivided and assured it would stay in agricultural production. Mr. Kramer read a letter to the board and said it was important to him that they stayed in the Williamson Act. Mr. Kramer asked why the board would take away this opportunity to penalize the ranchers who were doing the right thing for the future.

SPEAKERS: Callie Wood, Brad Hanson, Buck Parks, Karen Kramer, Amy Holman (Lassen Land Trails and Trust), Michelle Kramer, Nancy Shaffer (California Ranch Land Trust), Jack Hanson.

CAO Egan stated when the county entered into the Williamson Act Contract, the county was recruiting people to join because the tax payer received the benefits of lower tax rates. The state subvented the county and subvented payment to the county. Counties at that time could not afford to subsidize therefore not being able to do the Williamson Act. Lassen County took the approach and stated it could be done with limitations. County Counsel Uhrhammer stated there were different definitions and agricultural easements that limits property to agriculture. It was different in a setting that's a little bit broader than the agricultural conservation easement. The resolution is "Shall" language, there was no discretion. If there was a desire by the board to deal with this issue, the resolution would need to be updated. CAO Egan stated the idea to modify the resolution would be if counsel agreed the best approach was to table the Kramer appeal and revisit the entire resolution as it would impact an excess of twenty properties that have already been non-renewed by the current resolution. Supervisor Ingram asked if Lassen County was the only county where a conservation easement was disqualified. CAO Egan stated he was only aware of Lassen County, however there were 58 counties in the state. Some counties said they couldn't afford it and wouldn't do the Williamson Act at all. Supervisor Gallagher stated this didn't seem like an urgency today as the taxes would be put off until the 5th year. CAO Egan reminded the board Mr. Kramer had to file the appeal to protect their right and the board has discretion over the time. Supervisor Gallagher stated the general fund was not going to survive if the county had to continue putting up with losses given by the state. It may not seem like a lot, however the more people that are effected, it effects all general fund departments. Supervisor Gallagher stated the county needed to find some way to increase the general fund to continue services provided by the county. Lassen County had to continue to function as a county to continue to provide services and to do fairly for everyone. Supervisor Gallagher recommended to determine the non-renewal notice or to provide direction to staff. CAO Egan informed the board Moon Valley sold repeatedly. The subdivisions occurred prior to the Subdivision Map Act prior to 1972. Every county has a Subdivision Map Act. The county would get involved and approve the subdivision. The Subdivision Map Act somewhat controlled that. It wasn't the county making the parcels, it was some random landowner that would do the subdividing and have recorded. Supervisor Neely asked if the landowner could get out of Williamson Act pertaining to conservation easements and subdivide the land in ten years. CAO Egan stated that was a misnomer and land didn't automatically subdivide. County Counsel Uhrhammer said it gave the landowner the opportunity to get out of the contract. Supervisor Neely asked if the conservation easement and Williamson Act were locked in, could the landowner never subdivide. CAO Egan stated that's what the conservation easement states and that was an intellectual debate for another time.

Supervisor Bridges made a motion to table the item to receive additional information. The motion seconded by Supervisor Ingram. CAO Egan stated his recommendation was to table the item and re-agendize with additional information.

A motion was made by Supervisor Bridges, seconded by Supervisor Ingram, to table this item to a future board meeting. The motion carried by the following vote:

CAO Egan informed the board this item was being brought for consideration as the county is in need of legal services on an ongoing basis. County Counsel's contract was set to expire and would need to be renewed. There was a modest increase to the amount of the contract. Supervisor Neely asked if this was the basic draft that was approved last year. CAO Egan stated in essence yes. Substance was the same services being provided. County Counsel Uhrhammer stated there was a 2% late fee added. Discussion was held pertaining to job duties, office hours, insurance requirements, terms of the contract, and travel expense. CAO Egan reiterated to the board the new contract contained the same language as the prior contract. Supervisor Neely asked what were County Counsel's regular office hours. CAO Egan stated there were none specified in the contract. County Counsel Uhrhammer stated she is in the Administrative Office two days a week. County Counsels presence was at the need of the Department Heads. Deputy CAO Tony Shaw stated what was important was the fact County Counsel Uhrhammer had been great being available to the staff. If County Counsel Uhrhammer was not present or en route to the county she was always available by phone or in her Redding office. The most important days for County Counsel to be present were for the board and agenda meetings. Supervisor Neely asked why a Request For Proposal (RFP) was not submitted. CAO Egan stated it was not a conflict with the purchasing policy as County Counsel services do not require an RFP. CAO Egan stated his recommendation was to approve the contract for the sake of continuity as it would be a disservice of the legal advice the county was currently receiving. Supervisor Albaugh agreed. Sheriff/Coroner John McGarva stated County Counsel Uhrhammer had consistently been available for any issue within the Sheriff's Office. There had not been a time County Counsel was not available. Sheriff McGarva's recommendation was to continue the contract with Prentice Long PC. Supervisor Albaugh stated County Counsel Uhrhammer had always given good, sound advice, and was very upfront and straight forward. Attachments: H3 CAO Agreement-Draft-BOS

County Counsel Uhrammer stated staff was given direction to appoint Deputy CAO Tony Shaw as the County Administrative Officer. This item was a proposed contract for that position. CAO Egan said he believed the board made a really good decision and chose the right person for the right job at the right time. CAO

Egan also stated he believed the compensation was too low and was aware of other entities in the community and other counties where compensation was much higher. The proposed salary was lower than those. CAO Egan said Deputy CAO Shaw was well qualified and requested the board to consider the salaries recently negotiated with the Lassen Municipal Utility District (LMUD) Manager, City of Susanville Administrator, and the Lassen Community College President, which were all significantly higher than what was being proposed for the CAO. Deputy CAO Shaw thanked the board for the offer and stated he took the offer very seriously. Deputy CAO Shaw said he was very respectful to the elected and appointed department heads, County Counsel, and the employees that rely on a well functioning CAO's office. Deputy CAO Shaw discussed the parameters of his proposed contract, how he determined the annual income, and an amended salary table for the future. Deputy CAO Shaw informed the board there were two edits in the proposed contract that would need to be stricken on Section 2, 5a pertaining to compensation and a typo on page 7, the zip code was missing a number. Additional discussion was held pertaining to compensation. Supervisor Gallagher recommended a 5% increase after six months, and then another 5% increase at one year. County Counsel Uhrhammer stated the increase would be a Range 45 D. The consensus of the board was to approve the contract with the edits as described and with a starting pay at Range 45 Step D.

A motion was made by Supervisor Gallagher, seconded by Supervisor Ingram that this Action Item be approved as amended. The motion carried by the following vote:

COUNTY ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE

SUBJECT: INFORMATION FOR THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

CAO Egan reported: 1) Stated he wanted to highlight a couple of projects and ongoing business the board should be aware of and prioritize. CAO Egan said the first project should be the courthouse. CAO Egan said he hoped that it would've been completed in his tenure. It was not due to anything by the county or staff. The quality of the project isn't up to the standard that the people deserved. CAO Egan encouraged to defer to Director of Public Works Pete Heimbigner and staff. The contractor and surrogates need to be held accountable and ensure the project gets completed to the specifications. Director Heimbigner and his team were doing an excellent job; 2) stated some organizational changes had begun in Health and Social Services and encouraged the board to continue with the changes; 3) briefly discussed labor agreements and contracts pertaining to staff and was great the board was able to increase compensation for a level of vacancies and retention; 4) discussed the Homekey Housing Project and said the state was going to continue to pressure Lassen County. CAO Egan said he didn't believe the Homekey Project had failed to perform on their end of the agreement and felt the project was just going to be problematic. CAO Egan recommended the board to look for other avenues to provide housing and should be a priority in our community; 5) briefly discussed the Fair Department staffing and budget. The reckless spending that occurred earlier this year would have a long term effect on the fair and may take a while to work out; 6) stated the financial system is in many ways functioning and would provide a lot more ease of reporting. There were a few challenges in payroll and the personnel side, however it was on track to be implemented and would make budgeting easier for the board; 7) discussed Public Defender services and stated a Request for Proposal had been completed. Lassen County had been under contract with Tim Prentiss for some time and would expire this year. CAO Egan recommended the board to default to the court to appoint counsel; 8) CAO Egan stated these were his recommendations and it had been a pleasure.
